1. Please make all checks payable to "The City of Noblesville."
2. Filing Fee: When an applicant submits a CHANGE OF DEVELOPMENT PLAN APPLICATION, payment of a $350.00 filing fee must be submitted. Cash, checks, or credit cards are accepted. The filing fee is not refundable.

B. Materials: The applicant must submit the following information unless otherwise instructed:

1. Legal Description: An accurate legal description of the property which is the subject of the Change of Development Plan application.
 - a. In the event that the subject property is located within a recorded subdivision, the applicant shall submit the lot number, section number, and recorded name of such subdivision.
 - b. In the event that the subject property is not located within a recorded subdivision, the applicant shall submit a metes and bounds legal description of the subject property. Such legal description should be contained in the deed to the property and should be on file with the Hamilton County Recorder's Office, located at 33 North 9th Street, Noblesville, Indiana 46060.
 - c. The recording number for, and a copy of, the most recent Deed of Record.
2. Site Plan: A current and accurate site plan (not to exceed 11" x 17" in size) of the subject property, drawn to scale, showing the following information:
 - a. The boundaries of the property which is the subject of the CHANGE OF DEVELOPMENT PLAN application.
 - b. The locations and dimensions of all existing and proposed structures;
 - c. Elevations (scaled drawings of the exterior appearance) of proposed structures or additions;

- d. The locations and dimensions of all existing and proposed building lines, right-of-way lines, regulated drains, floodways, floodway fringe areas, and easements;
 - e. The locations and dimensions of all significant infrastructure, existing and proposed, on the subject site;
 - f. The locations and dimensions of all driveways and drainage areas adjacent to the subject property;
 - g. The locations and dimensions of all relevant open space areas, buffer yards, landscaped areas, refuse and service areas, and signs; and
 - h. Any other information the Board of Zoning Appeals may deem useful in determining if the proposed CHANGE OF DEVELOPMENT PLAN is appropriate.
- 3. Narrative Statement: A narrative statement explaining the nature and extent of the proposed use of the subject property and why the change of plan is being requested; and
 - 4. Application: A completed CHANGE OF DEVELOPMENT PLAN Application.

II. Notice Requirements (required after filing, but before public hearing):

A. Newspaper Publication:

- 1. A legal notice of the scheduled public hearing will be prepared and submitted by the Department of Planning to the Noblesville Times and the Hamilton County Reporter in sufficient time to meet the notice deadlines as shown on the attached "Schedule of Meetings."
- 2. The applicant is responsible for the payment for such publications. Your contact information will be provided to the Noblesville Times and Hamilton County Reporter upon submission of the legal notice.
- 3. A "Proof of Publication" document will be provided to the applicant and the Department of Planning by the newspaper offices. The applicant is not required to take any further action regarding the newspaper publications.

B. Mailings to Adjoining Property Owners:

- 1. Notice to Affected Property Owners: The applicant is required to send, via Certificate of Mailing (which is different than Certified Mail), written notice to all property owners of record within a distance of two parcels in depth or 660 feet, whichever is less, of the property which is the subject of this Change of Development Plan. The Department of Planning will prepare this notice.
- 2. Within two weeks of the filing deadline, the Department of Planning will provide the prepared written notice to the applicant electronically, or the notice can be picked up at our office.

3. The applicant is responsible for the following tasks prior to the public hearing:

- a. Identifying Affected Property Owners: The applicant shall contact the Hamilton County Real Property Department (located in the Old Courthouse on the Noblesville Square) in order to obtain the names and mailing addresses of all Affected Property Owners. Please allow a minimum of 5 business days to obtain this list.

Hamilton County Real Property Department
33 North 9th Street
Noblesville, Indiana 46060
Phone: (317) 776-9624
Fax: (317) 776-9682

- b. Mailing Legal Notices:
 - i. The applicant shall mail written notice of the public hearing, via Certificate of Mailing, to property owners of record within a distance of two parcels in depth or 660 feet, whichever is less, of the subject property as identified by the Real Property Department.
 - ii. The applicant is responsible for payment of Certificate of Mailing fees.
 - iii. The applicant shall submit all Certificate of Mailing receipts to the Department of Planning at least three business days prior to the scheduled public hearing. It is acceptable to scan those items and email the information to the Department as long as the stamp indicating the date of mailing is legible.
- c. Completion of Petitioner's Affidavit:
 - i. An affidavit entitled "Petitioner's Affidavit of Notice of Public Hearing" is attached to this application.
 - ii. Such affidavit shall be completed by the applicant and submitted to the Department of Planning at least three business days prior to scheduled public hearing.
- d. Submission of materials for Board:

If the applicant wishes to submit packets or additional information to the Board prior to the hearing, all information must be submitted to the Department of Planning no later than two weeks prior to the hearing. If the Board receives materials at the hearing, the matter may be continued to the next scheduled hearing to allow for sufficient time to review the material

C. Public Hearing Sign:

1. A member of the Noblesville Department of Planning staff will prepare a sign advertising the public hearing at which the requested Change of Development Plan will be considered.
2. Such sign will be installed on the subject property by a Department of Planning staff member some time prior to the scheduled public hearing, and removed by same after the hearing is completed. The applicant should not remove the sign from where it is placed.
3. During the period that such sign is present on the subject property, it is the applicant's responsibility to maintain the sign in good condition and to maintain the visibility of said sign.

D. Property Owner Consent:

1. In the event that the applicant and the Owner of Record (the property owner on record with the Hamilton County Real Property Department) are not the same person or entity, the Owner of Record shall be required to submit a written consent permitting the Change of Development application.
2. Such consent shall include the following:
 - a. The name of the Owner of Record;
 - b. The name of the applicant;
 - c. Address or parcel number of the subject property;
 - d. A statement of awareness and support of the requested Change of Development;
 - e. The relevant Board of Zoning Appeals case number;
 - f. The notarized signature of the Owner of Record; and
 - g. The date of signing.
3. Such consent letter must be submitted to the Department of Planning at least three business days prior to the scheduled public hearing.

III. Public Hearing Procedure:

The full procedure for conduct of the public hearing may be found in the Board of Zoning Appeals Rules of Procedure at this City of Noblesville website page: https://www.cityofnoblesville.org/egov/documents/1525184972_93109.pdf. Below is the summary of the conduct of the presentation of evidence on individual items at the hearing. Please note that the applicant may appear on their own behalf or be represented by counsel or an agent, but if no one is there to present evidence on behalf of the applicant, the item will be continued to the next meeting.

The Noblesville Board of Zoning Appeals (BZA) is authorized to approve or deny CHANGE OF DEVELOPMENT PLAN requests in accordance with the terms of the Noblesville Unified Development Ordinance, Article 4, Part C. The BZA may impose reasonable conditions as part of its approval (see Indiana Code § 36-7-4-918.2).

The Board of Zoning Appeals shall review the particular facts and circumstances of each proposed CHANGE OF DEVELOPMENT PLAN request in terms of the following nine (9) standards. The BZA shall determine whether there is adequate evidence showing the truth of the following statements:

1. The proposed CHANGE OF DEVELOPMENT PLAN is, in fact, a change of Conditional Use established within the specific zoning district involved. Explain why this statement is true in this case:

2. The proposed CHANGE OF DEVELOPMENT PLAN will be harmonious with, and in accordance with, the general objectives or with any specific objective of the City's Comprehensive Plan and the Unified Development Ordinance. Explain why this statement is true in this case:

3. The proposed CHANGE OF DEVELOPMENT PLAN will be designed, constructed, operated, and maintained so as to be harmonious and appropriate in appearance with the existing or intended character of the general vicinity and will not change the essential character of the same area. Explain why this statement is true in this case:

4. The proposed CHANGE OF DEVELOPMENT PLAN will not be hazardous or disturbing to existing neighboring uses. Explain why this statement is true in this case:

5. The proposed CHANGE OF DEVELOPMENT PLAN will be served adequately by essential public facilities and services such as highways, streets, police and fire protection, drainage structures, refuse disposal, water and sewer, and schools; or that the persons or agencies responsible for the establishment of the proposed CHANGE OF DEVELOPMENT PLAN shall be able to provide adequately any such services. Explain why this statement is true in this case:

6. The proposed CHANGE OF DEVELOPMENT PLAN will not create excessive additional requirements at public expense for public facilities and services and will not be detrimental to the economic welfare of the community. Explain why this statement is true in this case:

7. The proposed CHANGE OF DEVELOPMENT PLAN will not involve uses, activities, processes, materials, equipment, or conditions of operation that will be detrimental to any persons, property, or the general welfare by reason of excessive production of traffic, noise, smoke, fumes, glare, or odors. Explain why this statement is true in this case:

8. The proposed CHANGE OF DEVELOPMENT PLAN will have vehicular approaches to the property which shall be so designed as not to create an interference with traffic on surrounding public thoroughfares. Explain why this statement is true in this case:

9. The proposed CHANGE OF DEVELOPMENT PLAN will not result in the destruction, loss, or damage of a natural, scenic, or historic feature of major importance. Explain why this statement is true in this case:
